

Tips from the Bnai Green Team:

*Home Composting Options:

1. Free Composting at Town of Fairfield transfer station

Find out more on Town of Fairfield website:

<https://www.fairfieldct.org/solidwasteneews/?FeedID=5330>

2. Curbside composting –monthly fee, your compost is picked up at your curb weekly. Some companies in this area are:

Action Waste Solutions – Actionwastesolutions.com

Curbside Compost—curbcompost.org

3. Composting at home

<https://www.npr.org/2020/04/07/828918397/how-to-compost-at-home>

4. Electric countertop composters such as Lomi, Cavdle, etc,
Can be found on Amazon

*Buy less/throw away less

Join our own Bnai Israel and Bonim shares Facebook group to gift or find unwanted items. Once a connection is made, you may place the unwanted item in the Bnai coat closet to be picked up. Also join Buy Nothing Fairfield Facebook Group which is much larger.

*Avoid using disposable plates/utensils

The Bnai Green Team is currently working on options for renting temple plates/utensils/linens for events like Bar Mitzvahs. Stay tuned and make your next event greener!

